

“

This Sunday, we celebrate Hosanna Sunday. The crowds came together bearing palms and olive branches welcoming Christ into Jerusalem. It was a joyous time of celebration as Christ rode a donkey into the city, not as a conqueror, but as a savior.

Just like the crowds that gathered then, may we always welcome our loving God into our lives. May we continue to live our lives of faith and joy in the Lord as He is our source of comfort and salvation.

HOSANNA SUNDAY

APRIL 10, 2022

O Christ our God, in the heavens you are carried on a chariot of light, yet on earth you ride on a donkey's colt.

You are hidden from the spiritual powers, yet you are praised by your holy disciples in the streets of Jerusalem.

O Holy One, you are seated on the throne of your glory, yet you are honored by the crowds, the old and the young, infants and children, who spread their cloaks and branches before you. In your grace you have planned all this for our salvation.
