

The Days of Creation, Lesson 4

The First Day

I. The First Day and Genesis 1:3-5

A. Sequence:

B. Separation:

C. Sovereignty:

II. The First Day and the Gospel of John

A. Signs & the Creator of the World

B. Sins & the Author of the Law

III. The First Day and the Passion Week

(Warren Austin Gage, The Gospel of Genesis, p. 22)

A. Light of the World approaches temple from direction of the eastern sunrise.

- B. During the week, He speaks the Word of God daily.
- C. His speaking addresses the religious and political leaders who represent the darkness of the original creation. (John 1:5, 13:30)
- D. On the 6th day, the Word surveyed His redemptive work and pronounced it “finished”, (John 19:31).

“Thus is the old creation redemptively reenacted in the new creation.”

IV. The First Day and Applications for Today

- A. Believing the Light

- B. Walking in the Light

- C. Living as Lights

Welcome to The Days of Creation

Today: September 22, 2019

Day 1: The Creation of Light

The 1st Day & Gen 1:3-5

- Sequence: Light precedes instruments/channels of light.
 - Separation: God "divides". Foretaste of law.
 - Sovereignty: God names.
-

The 1st Day & John's Gospel

- Signs & the Creator of the World
 - Sins & the Author of the Law
-
-

Writing of the Law

Exodus 31 & 34: Tablets 1 & 2

- Tablet #1: Ex 31:18 "with His finger"
- Tablet #2: Ex 34:38 "He wrote"

John 8:1-12

- 1st writing: Jn 8:6 "with His finger"
 - 2nd writing: Jn 8:8, "He wrote"
-

The 1st Day & the Passion Week Warren Austin Gage

- Light approaches temple from the east
- Light speaks the Word of God daily
- Light speaks against spiritual darkness
- Light "finishes" work

The 1st Day & Applications for Today

- Believing the Light for eternal life
 - Walking in the Light for present experience of eternal life
 - Living as instruments/channels of Light
-