Systematic Theology: Christology II—the Work of Christ
Fellowship Bible Church
Summer 2019 Les Sillars

I. Intro

What think ye of Christ?

II. The Roles of Christ: Prophet, Priest, King
All three were inaugurated by anointing
The Bible is the story of how, after God's creatures _____ against Him and upset the
_____ _____, He worked in history to redeem and restore people and the entire universe to Himself and for His glory. Each of these roles is necessary for this task.

A. Prophet
   Moses, the first prophet (Deut. 18:15-22/Acts 3:22-23)
   What do prophets do? They represent _____ to _____
   Who do prophets speak to? Just Israel, or to everyone? (hint: Elijah and Elisha, Isaiah)
   Why must false prophets be stoned?
   What do prophets say? What's their message? (OT and NT John the Baptist)
   How is their message validated?
   What about Christ? Does he do the same things? Examples?
   What's the difference between Christ and a human prophet? John 1:17
   The questions for all men everywhere: Who is Jesus? and Do you believe? John 1

B. Priest
   What do priests do? They represent _____ to _____ Hebrews:
   3:1-6 Christ greater than _____
   4:14 Jesus the _____
   5:1-10, 6:20-7:28 What is the nature of this high priest?
   On the order of _____ Gen. 14:18-20
   As priest, Christ brings us before _____

C. King
   What do kings do? They _____ and _____
   "In the image of": the idol represents the god to the people
   Gen 1-3 The Fall is a story of rebellion against the Creator, the King of the Universe
   II Sam 7 Davidian dynasty
   David is a "type" of Christ, in that he foreshadows the work and character of Christ; examples?
   Rev. 19 What are the characteristics of Christ the King? What does He do? What is done for Him?
   The Father _____ the Son/Prince, who then _____ on behalf of the Father
   Is Christ now "king"? (Eph. 1:20-22) Is Jesus also our "friend"?

III. The roles of Christians: If Christ is prophet, priest, and king, what are we? What are our obligations to Him as "citizens of heaven" (Phil 3:20-21)?
