Gospel Mission

Four Byproducts of the Gospel

The Gospel creates a community of Honor

The church is not built on a few prominent leaders, but on many faithful servants.

The Gospel calls us to guard the truth

Guard the Gospel, resist false teachings, and live with the confidence in Christ's victory.

The Gospel unites us in our mission.

No one is meant to labor alone. Partnership in Christ is vital for endurance and effectiveness.

The Gospel Glorifies God.

Every act of service, every defense of truth, every partnership, ultimately points to the Glory of God.

Group Discussion:

Am I living out the four byproducts of the Gospel?

What is my personal call to action: serve faithfully, guard the truth courageously, partner in the mission joyfully, give glory to God in everything.

What did God speak to you this week through the message and devotions?
