

THE ATTRIBUTES OF GOD***
The Omnipotence of God
Lesson #2 Outline
September 15, 2024

1. Definition of the Omnipotence of God.
2. Illustrations of God's omnipotence
3. Thoughts to ponder about God's omnipotence
4. Scriptural support for God's omnipotence
Genesis 17:1; Genesis 18:14; Numbers 11:23; Job 42:2; Isaiah 40:12-31;
Jeremiah 32:17, 27; Luke 1:37; Hebrews 1:3; Revelation 4:11;
5. Errors concerning God's omnipotence
  - A. God's power is limited.
  - B. If God were all powerful, He would do what I think He should do.
  - C. The laws of nature are what govern the universe, not God.
  - D. God's power is determined by what He has already done.
  - E. God can do anything and everything.
(God can not contradict His nature: Hebrews 6:17-18; Titus 1:2; James 1:13)
6. Application of the omnipotence of God
  - A. Because God is all-powerful, we should fear Him: Jeremiah 5:22-2; Luke 12:4-5
  - B. Because God is all powerful and the gospel is the power of God of all who believe, we should be motivated to evangelize the lost.
7. Additional Observations
Charles Spurgeon
R. C. Sproul
John MacArthur
8. Conclusion
9. Next Sunday, Dave Sprunck will be teaching on the Omniscience of God.

* Except for the information in Additional Observations, the curriculum for this class was developed by Pastor Jack Hughes, Anchor Bible Church, Louisville, Kentucky. See his website Driven Nails for the entire curriculum. <https://www.drivennails.com/attributes-of-god-study>