

JOSEPH

Joseph looked a lot like Jesus.

He is the object of his father's special love.

He had promises of divine exaltation.

He was mocked by his family.

He was sold for pieces of silver.

He was stripped of his robe.

He was delivered up to the Gentiles.

He was falsely accused.

He was faithful amid temptation.

He was thrown into prison.

He stood before rulers.

His power was acknowledged by those in authority.

He saves his rebellious brothers from death when they realize who he is.

He is exalted after and through humiliation.

He embraces God's purpose even though it brings him intense physical harm.

He is the instrument God uses at the hands of the Gentiles to bless his people.

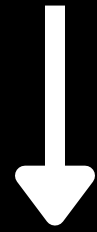

He welcomes Gentiles to be part of his family.

He gives hungry people bread.

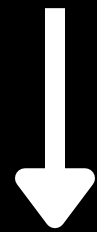

People must bow their knee before him.

JOSEPH

“For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up.”

Matthew 27:18

Victimhood is not Christlike.

God was with Joseph and working to bring about good.
