

JANUARY 2026 THEME

THE KING AND HIS DOMINION

Massage Title: Rebellion Against The King

The Fall and the Fracture of the Kingdom

Date: Sunday, January 18, 2026

Primary Text: Genesis 3:1–24 (KJV)

Supporting Texts: Isaiah 53:6; Romans 5:12; Romans 8:19–22; Colossians 2:15; Revelation 12:9

INTRODUCTION (5 MINUTES)

The greatest problem in the world is not poverty.

It is not politics.

It is not education.

The greatest problem in the world is rebellion against God's rule.

Every broken home, every corrupt system, every wounded heart traces back to one moment in human history:

“Yea, hath God said?” (Genesis 3:1)

This sermon exposes how the Kingdom was fractured, why humanity fell, and how God began redemption immediately.

I. THE CONDITION OF HUMANITY - DECEPTION AGAINST THE KING

Rebellion Begins with Questioning God's Word

Genesis 3:1

“Yea, hath God said...”

Satan did not attack Adam and Eve physically.

He attacked God's authority.

1. He questioned God's Word
2. He twisted God's character
3. He tempted them to seek independence

Revelation 12:9 “That old serpent, called the Devil... deceiveth the whole world.”

Kingdom Truth:

Deception is the enemy's main weapon against divine authority.

Application:

Any voice that challenges God's Word is trying to overthrow God's rule in your life.

II. THE COST - REBELLION SHATTERS KINGDOM ORDER

Sin is Treason Against Heaven

Genesis 3:6

They did not just eat fruit.

They declared independence from God.

Isaiah 53:6 “We have turned every one to his own way...”

Romans 5:12 “By one man sin entered into the world...”

Results of Rebellion:

- Shame (v.7)
- Fear (v.10)
- Separation (v.23–24)
- Death (v.19)

Kingdom Reality:

Sin is not weakness - it is treason against the King.

III. GOD’S SOLUTION - THE KING PURSUES THE REBELS

Grace in the Middle of Judgment

Genesis 3:8–9

“Adam, where art thou?”

God did not abandon man.

God pursued man.

1. He exposed sin
2. He pronounced judgment
3. He promised redemption

Genesis 3:15 “The seed of the woman... shall bruise thy head.”

This is the first prophecy of Christ.

Christ-Centered Truth:

The cross was planned in the garden.

Colossians 2:15 Jesus defeated Satan openly.

IV. THE REQUIRED RESPONSE — RETURN TO THE KING

Redemption Begins With Repentance

Adam and Eve hid.

God called.

That is still the story today.

Romans 8:22 Creation groans for restoration.

The Kingdom will be restored only when hearts return to God.

CONCLUSION (5 MINUTES)

What was broken in Eden is being restored through Christ.

Rebellion brought:

- Curse
- Separation
- Death

Christ brings:

- Forgiveness
- Reconciliation
- Life

CALL TO RESPONSE

SALVATION: “All we like sheep have gone astray...” (Isaiah 53:6)

REPENTANCE: Where have you resisted God’s authority?

PRAYER DECLARATIONS (7)

1. Father, forgive my rebellion.
2. I repent of self-rule.
3. I submit to Your authority.
4. Cleanse me by the blood of Jesus.
5. Restore what sin has damaged.
6. I receive Kingdom life.
7. Thy Kingdom come in me.

FINAL SCRIPTURE

“Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.” (Romans 5:20)
