Reflection Questions...

After watching the video, take a few minutes to reflect on these questions. I suggest using a journal so you can write down your thoughts! I also suggest playing some calm music. Look up Bethel's album "after all these years" on Spotify.

Read Isaiah 43:18-21 msg version.
What stands out to you?

What painful moments have you faced in your life that at times keep you from being brave right now?

Just like Mick Fanning, the surfer, you and I have had bad things happen, pain has come to our lives...and we can choose to keep surfing or stand on the shore...which would you rather do? Why?

Ok...let's get real with ourselves for a minute. Jesus isn't judging you...he's calling you. So...honestly...have you stopped pounding the arrows on the ground? Are you doing the minimum? Stopped obeying God in the little things?

Absolutely...every time...always...when God gives us a word to obey...it's always for this goal...that we would know that He is God...and that we would know Him intimately by trusting Him. Isaiah 43:10 actually says that very thing. Look it up! It's true. He loves you.

You are loved!

I want to present a challenge to you. I have shared a video below. It's a thick and heavy topic "Why is Christianity right?" I'm guessing that many of you wonder this. Especially at your age. And you probably have friends who ask. Ravi Zacharias is the best Christian scholar who helps us answer this question. Not with pithy Christian statements...but with facts and truth. Listen to it. Explore other videos of his on YouTube as well. Jesus is real. This whole thing the Bible states is real. And True. His love for you is also real.

With Love Grace and Peace,
