Man of Fire #1 | Speaking Truth to Power

He comes out of nowhere; little is known about this man named Elijah, who would stand before Kings and speak truth to power. He does not have his own book in the Bible; he is a small figure in the historical record of Israel's Kings, yet he never leaves the psyche of the Jewish people, and his story is woven into the Good News of Jesus. For those who would follow Jesus, there is much to learn from this Man of Fire named Elijah.

"Context and Characters"

Elijah the prophet

Israel

King Ahab, aka, The WOAT

Life Lessons from the Man of Fire

1. God does not tolerate evil _____. [I Kings 17:1]

_____

Speaking truth does not make you popular; it makes you a person of _____.
It makes you truthful. It makes you trustworthy.

2. God can use strain and pain in this season to produce _____ and _____ in the next season. [I Kings 17:2-7]

Speaking truth does not mean walking on _____ street; it means walking _____ to God.
It may even seem like nonsense, but it will eventually make clear sense. [I Corinthians 1:27, Luke 1:37]

3. God will make a way when there is no _____. [I Kings 17:8-14]

_____

_____[Luke 4:25-26]

4. God will bless those who bless _____. [I Kings 17:15-16]

_____

5. God continues to work in the _____ of days. [I Kings 17:17-24]

_____

For the Jesus follower, speaking truth will not be a matter of how great the _____ is around you,
but of how bright the _____ of Christ is within you.
[John 1:5]

Will You Be a Follower of Fire?

God was at work in some of the darkest days of Israel despite unspeakable evil at the top of society and government. This is a reminder to us that just because we do not always see Him working, does not mean He is not working significantly working His plan.

Questions to Ask Before God

- Am I willing to speak truth to power?
- Am I willing to be prepared in obscurity?
- Am I willing to speak truth to whoever and wherever He leads me?
- Who is the person God is calling me to invite to Him?
