TAKE IT WITH YOU

"It's mine" is a statement we hear children say at an early age. As much as we might think that sounds selfish and we teach them to share, to be kind and all of those good things, it's often difficult for us to lose the mindset of "it's mine", especially when we feel we have worked hard for it.

Deuteronomy 8:18 says, "But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth."

Recently one of our daughters was going over the "Easter Story" with her children, using resurrection eggs which have a small item in each egg representing the series of events that led Jesus to the cross, ending with the empty tomb. Our 2 year old granddaughter already had a turn opening an egg and had a "cup" representing the last supper in her egg. When her older brother opened an egg with 3 coins, she said "I don't want this one any more! I want to have the monies!" Out of the mouth of babes on so many levels.

- 1) Don't we want to just have the "monies"? The good stuff in a Christian walk? Do we really want to drink from the cup that Jesus did?
- 2) From a literal standpoint, sometimes we've worked hard for "the monies" and we are back to our childhood days thinking, "It's mine!"

One of my favorite songs by Steve Green is "Find Us Faithful".

*Oh may all who come behind us find us faithful.
May the fire of our devotion light their way.
May the footprints that we leave
Lead them to believe,
And the lives we live inspire them to obey.
Oh, may all who come behind us find us faithful.*

Generations behind us and generations before us. May we be faithful with what God has given us. May we be faithful with "the monies" so that all who come behind us find us faithful.
