Cutting Through the Noise | Joy Complete

1 John 1:1-14

Today, we begin a study in the unique letter we call "1 John". Written by the man known as the "Beloved Disciple", one would imagine this writer would be full of joy. However, his joy was incomplete, and somehow writing this letter would fill up what was lacking.

Who was John, why was his joy lacking and how would writing help?

---

---

John writes as a _____ of the movement Jesus started,
by protecting and promoting:

Who Jesus _____

What Jesus _____

What Jesus _____ & _____

What it _____ to believe in and follow Jesus

Letting the noise of distraction and deception drown out these things is to lose and be found lacking in ____.

"That which was from the beginning" 1 John 1:1

Results of “that which was from the beginning”:

Result #1: Proclaiming _____ life. 1 John 1:2

---

---

---

- John 17:3
- John 3:16

Result #2: Fellowship with _____ . 1 John 1:3a

Result #3: Fellowship with the _____ and His _____ .
1 John 1:3b

Conclusion

On Sunday, August 21, 1949, a new local body of believers met for worship in the school building now known as Alma Easom School. This was the birth of a new church. These people were pioneers, folks on the “cutting edge” yet faithful to “That which was from the beginning.” They would eventually become known as “Snyder” in this community. Now we pray some 76 years later, “May those who come behind us; find us faithful”; may we be found holding tightly to “that which was from the beginning,” proclaiming eternal life with Joy Complete.
