TAKE IT WITH YOU

We read today about three generational moments, all happening in the ancient city of Jerusalem. Throughout all of the accounts, something important should not be lost on us: Jerusalem was a sacred city. It was intimately connected with sacred history, and it was the center of religious life for pious Jews. Just entering it must have had a profound effect on many God fearing people. At its center was the temple, the meeting place of Heaven and Earth, and the city's goal was to direct all who enter to the true God.

The Church is the New Jerusalem. We have at our center Jesus, God made man, through whom we may be reconciled to God and glorified. Our churches, then, should fill people with the same kind of religious awe that the great city did, inviting all to enter and worship the true God.

So as we discuss changes, let us focus on making Snyder a New Jerusalem: a place that people are awed by, whether it be because of the people, the programs, the teaching, or even the beauty of the building. A place that leads people, awestruck, to the center of our faith, Jesus Christ. That is a true generational moment, and we have the opportunity to foster it.

So let us contemplate our purpose in these pews. As we move forward, let us work to make our church awe inspiring for all generations, helping us fulfill the great commission to "go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you".

~ Matthew Miller
