Slip & Slide: What's Love Got To Do With It?

We are in the third month of our summer sermon series called "Slip and Slide". The aim is to keep us from "slipping and sliding" in our thinking about God. As followers of Jesus, we are considered by those outside the church to be the authority on what a Christian believes and how Christians behave. Nowhere in our post-Christian culture does the light of Jesus shine brighter and stand out more clearly than in the Christian Sexual Ethic.

What is the Christian Sexual Ethic?

The sexual relationship was designed by God for

One _____
&
One _____ in
One _____ for
One lifetime

While this is the simple, unconfused ethic presented in Genesis and held unflinchingly throughout the entire Word of God to the end of Revelation, for most of human history it has been seen as counter-culture. Certainly, a post-Christian culture will see Jesus' standard as unreasonable, unkind, and unpopular.

Slip on...

_____ is Love.

Slide from...

_____ is Love.

When we slide from God's design, we dismiss:

1. The elegant _____ of God's design. (Genesis 1:27-28; 2:24)
2. God's view of marital _____. (Exodus 20:14)
3. God's view of sexual _____. (Leviticus 18 & 20)
4. Jesus' _____ in God's design of marriage and sexuality. (Matthew 19:4-6)
5. Jesus' elevation of God's standard by extending it beyond actions to _____. (Matthew 5:27-28)
6. Paul's warning that abandoning God's design of marriage and sexuality results in _____ damage. (I Corinthians 6:18)

Tiny slips to be unmasked:*

- ✓ Emphasize the _____ of those in sexual relationships antithetical to God's design and Jesus' affirmation.
- ✓ Insist that God has bigger things to _____ about than human sexuality.
- ✓ Show that making allowances for sexual _____ contrary to Jesus' view leads to good things.
- ✓ Portray those who follow Jesus and uphold his standard of marriage and sexuality as _____, mean-spirited, and cruel.
- ✓ Insist that Jesus is actually in _____ of a lifestyle contrary to His Father's design, as well as to His own teaching.

Regaining and maintaining Jesus' perspective of Marriage and Sexuality:

Turn or Return to _____. (I Corinthians 6:18-20)

Stay humble. (Proverbs 16:18; I Corinthians 10:12)

Remain _____ by His love = Accept without Affirming (Matthew 7:14)

Remember it is not about _____ or _____ identity:

Revelation 19:7-9, 21:2 & 9
