On Purpose

The commands of Jesus are never random. There are always reasons behind His direction. Those who live for Jesus live on purpose. And those who live on purpose truly live.

Matthew 4:18-20

Fishing for men? Really?

Matthew 28:19-20

Snyder's Purpose Statement

We exist to lead people to Discover God, Develop Faith, and Display Christ-Like Love in our Attitudes and Actions.

A Church on the Rise

1. Creates more and more robust opportunities for _____ and _____.
The life change that Jesus brings to a person is best encouraged, _____, and maintained in the context of healthy connections and community with other believers.
 - ✓ This is common sense and sage wisdom. Ecclesiastes 4:9-12
 - ✓ Jesus did not call a disciple, He called _____.
Mark 3:13-19

The follower of Jesus engages the purpose of Jesus by connecting with _____.

2. Membership becomes more and more _____.
We have to recover that the local church and membership in it are important to God as evidenced by His word.

Two Scriptural Word Pictures for Church Membership:

What a partner does:

2. Biological Language: _____. (I Corinthians 12 & 14)
Two things about business and biology (I Corinthians 12:26)

- ✓ Being a part of a partnership means you stay _____ to stay healthy.
- ✓ Being a partnership means you have to have all your parts to be _____.
This is not just any body, though. (1 Corinthians 12:27)
- _____
- _____
- _____

Healthy people and leaders understand and welcome _____ and _____.

What Type of Church Member are You?

2. The _____ Partner?
3. The Partner of _____?

Conclusion

Healthy partnership with a local church is simply saying of the particular church you join, "This is the piece, the portion, of the body of Christ that I publicly identify with and most closely relate." If you are a Jesus follower, no matter where you live, be sure to be partnering in the Good News of Jesus with a local church.
