Faith at Home | Family Month Week 1

The Greatest Threat to Your Family

Faith isn't just what we believe at church. It's how we live at home.

READ TOGETHER

- Read: Genesis 3:1-10; Colossians 2:6-15; and James 1:22

TALK TOGETHER

- Take turns answering:
  - How did sin affect Adam and Eve's marriage and family and relationship with God?
  - How do we sometimes act like Adam and Eve? Do we hide our wrongdoing, make excuses, or blame others?
  - According to colossians 2:6-7, and James 1:22, why is it important to live out our faith at home and not only in public?
  - What is one attitude or action in your own life that needs to change? How can you demonstrate Christlike behavior in our home this week?
  - Why can't we change our hearts apart from Christ?

THIS WEEK'S FAMILY CHALLENGE

- Adam blamed God and Eve; this week, don't be like Adam! Don't point fingers at those in the family; start by looking in the mirror! Each person chooses one specific action to practice this week: speaking kindly, admitting wrong, forgiving quickly, serving others, or obeying without complaining.
- My step of obedience this week: _____

PRAY TOGETHER

- Each person shares one prayer request; take time to thank Jesus for His forgiveness and new life, and ask Him to change your hearts and help each person live out his Word at home.

"As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him"
- Colossians 2:6
