“Hope & Faith: Awakening the Inner Light” Sun. Sermon w/Dr. Nancy Little, LUT, Nov. 30, 11 am

Where in your life are you longing for a fresh spark of hope?

What would shift if you trusted, even a little more, in the presence of Spirit within?

How might your life feel different if you let your inner light rise and guide you?

As you enter the season of Advent, you are invited into a time of inner awakening — a time to listen deeply, to rekindle hope and to strengthen your faith. This sacred season gently calls you back to the truth that the Christ light within you is ready to rise and shine more fully in your life.

On this First Sunday of Advent, you’ll explore how Hope opens your heart to possibility and how Faith helps you trust more fully in the Divine presence within. Through story, reflection and timeless spiritual principles, you will remember that the light you seek is not distant — it is already alive at the center of your being, waiting for your recognition.

Join Dr. Nancy Little, LUT, this Sunday at 11 am for an uplifting, heartfelt beginning to the Advent season as you awaken hope, strengthen faith, and allow your inner light to shine.

Thank you for your continued support of Unity of Dallas and our community outreach including Now Forward (formerly North Dallas Shared ministries) and the SoupMobile.
