“God Lives Inside of Us - Really!” Sun. Service with Roger Kennedy, April 26, 11 am

Jesus taught that the Kingdom of God is within us. The second of the five Unity Principles affirms this.

But do we believe it? Do we feel worthy of having God part of us? What are the challenges to feeling the Divine within us?

We will look at some of these challenges this Sunday at 11 am through the lyrics of a song Roger wrote four years ago on this topic.

Guest Artist: Steven Fontaine

Originally from Rhode Island, Steven found his way to Texas via New York City, where he performed locally and internationally in theater and cabaret. Some of his favorite musicals he was fortunate to perform in professionally include Guys and Dolls, Brigadoon, Carousel, 42nd Street, and Crazy for You. Over 22 years ago, he moved to the DFW area and soon began sharing his talents at the Cathedral of Hope and The Turtle Creek Chorale. Nineteen years after leaving NYC, he made his Carnegie Hall debut with the Turtle Creek Chorale in a world premiere. For over a decade, Steven has been a guest artist at Unity of Dallas, sharing not only his voice but, more recently, his passion for flute repertoire. His musical performances have been described as clear, sincere, and beautiful. As a musician who happens to be blind, he brings a unique perspective to each performance, always guided by his faithful and charismatic yellow lab, Robert, his trusted companion. Together, they create an unforgettable presence, reminding audiences of the power of music to inspire, connect, and uplift.
