“The Divine Feminine” Sun. Service with Rev. Deb Stovall, LUT, May 10, 11 am

As we explore the divine feminine, we find many definitions. Charles Fillmore thought the divine feminine was the Holy Spirit. Could this amazing energy be God in action as the Holy Spirit; that part of us that “just knows;” our intuition.

As we uncover the magic of the divine feminine, wisdom and forgiveness emerge as incredible transformative powers that are found in both men and women.

Come experience our forgiveness ritual as we let go of what does not serve us and affirm that which does. I look forward to seeing you Sunday at 11 am!

Hugs,
Rev. Deb

Guest Artist: Sophia Gallegos

Sofia Gallegos is a lively 10-year old who was born and raised in Dallas. She has been singing since she could talk - it's a big part of who she is. Sofia is bilingual in Spanish and English and loves singing in both languages. She has been happily singing during the Unity of Dallas en Español service for more than a year, sharing her love of music with her community. Sofia is a proud twin, and both she and her brother have grown up at Unity of Dallas. When she's not singing, she enjoys reading, making art, dancing, and practicing Jiu Jitsu. She has a big, creative spirit, and loves exploring new things.

Thank you for your continued support of Unity of Dallas and our community outreach including Now Forward (formerly North Dallas Shared ministries) and the SoupMobile.
