“Twelve Powers: Faith and Wisdom” Sunday Service with Rev. Deb Stovall, LUT, Sunday, August 10, 11 am CDT

It is our birthright to spiritually mature and become a placeholder for peace, love, wisdom and fearlessness. We can each be a blessing for a world “starving for this witnessing.”

In times of fear and chaos, standing in our Truth becomes both a refuge and a beacon. When we are rooted in the unshakable knowing of who we truly are, we can respond instead of react, radiating peace even when the world feels turbulent. By embodying love, we dissolve division; by living fearlessly, we inspire courage; and by walking in wisdom, we illuminate a path forward for others. Our presence becomes a silent testimony that peace is possible, love is stronger than hate, and wisdom outshines confusion.

In this way, we become living witnesses, holding a sacred space for the world to remember its own wholeness. Come join me this Sunday at 11 am to practice this presence!

The service includes chaplain Jerry Chandler taking us into prayer and Michael Martinez as our platform assistant.

♪♪Our CommUNITY Singers sang “Welcome Home” and “Spirit of God”. Guest violinist Yasmine Bougacha performed “Sonata #1, III Siciliana/J.S.Bach (Solo Violin)” and “ Las Presencias - #7 Rosita Iglesias (C. Guastavino)”. ♪♪
