God's heart for the 'Poor'

Isaiah 10:1

Woe to those who make unjust laws, to those who issue oppressive decrees, to deprive the poor of their rights and withhold justice from the oppressed of my people.

A stone archway leading to a bright light, symbolizing a path or passage. The archway is constructed from large, rough-hewn stones and is set against a dark, textured background. The light at the end of the path is warm and golden, creating a strong contrast with the surrounding shadows. The overall mood is one of mystery and hope.

Entry to Social, and Moral Ethics

Augustine's vision of society was highly individualistic, with society composed of individuals seeking to maximize their self-interest. Augustine attributed this individualism and self interest to the effects of sin..This is called conflict model society.
