The Noonday Devil

Re the sustainment of the Capital I:

“Sadly enough, less worthy memories are also there and the loneliness, insecurity, sin, neglect and cruelty of childhood also leave their deposits in the unconscious mind.

The Noonday Devil

Bernard Basset 1964

The Capital I moving restlessly over the experiences of a lifetime, seems to be searching for particular good. For what is it looking for?

Each of us has known partial satisfaction, partial self fulfillment, a treasure which held our hearts for a few weeks, months or years. The Capital I is still searching, still restless and unsatisfied.

Where is thy treasure?

The Noonday Devil

Bernard Basset 1964

Is there a single instance in the Gospel story where Christ asked for effort without promising reparation or frowned on those who had followed him for gain? He certainly pointed out the error of those who looked for the false, unsatisfying quick result. The long-term reward which would fully satisfy he stressed time without number, an encouragement to those...who are searching still.”

Exercise:

Whose am I?

Who am I?

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed _____ in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as He chose me in Him before the foundation of the world, that I should be holy and blameless before Him. In love He predestined me for adoption to Himself as sons or daughters through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of His will, to the praise of His glorious grace, with which He has blessed me in the Beloved. In Him I have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of my trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, which He lavished upon me, in all wisdom and insight making known to me the mystery of His will, according to His purpose, which He set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth in Him.

In Him I have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of His glory. In Him I also, when I heard the word of truth, the gospel of my salvation, and believed in Him, was sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of my inheritance until I acquire possession of it, to the praise of His glory.
