C. The EXHORTATION for You to ENTER & ENJOY the FAITH-REST LIFE TODAY. (4)

- The importance of principlizing the text for contemporary relevance & application to our lives
- The book of Job teaches us the value of learning to faith-rest in the plan, purposes, and promises of God during undeserved suffering.
- Job 1
 - 1) The faith-rest life is needed due to _____ against the Devil and his demons & strategies requiring the shield of _____ and sword of the Holy Spirit which is the Word or _____ of God. (Eph. 6:16-17; Matt. 4:4,7,10; Job 1 &2)
 - 2) The faith-rest life does NOT mean a LACK of _____ in your life, even severe _____ afflictions, though these tests are _____. (Job 1 & 2)
 - 3) The faith-rest life enables you to _____ GOD for His _____ even when you do not know specifically the _____ for your trials as God's ways are NOT our ways. (Job 1:21-22; Isaiah 55:8-11)
- Job 2
 - 4) The faith-rest life can guard your heart from _____ toward God and others when faced with grievous trials. (2:10)
 - 5) The faith-rest life is needed when _____ let you down or misunderstand your trials because God NEVER will fail you and He remains _____ to His _____. (2:11-13)
- Job 3:1ff
 - 6) The faith-rest life is ALWAYS AVAILABLE but _____ consistently _____ in a believer's walk, though there can be a PATTERN of victory and rest of soul. (Job 3:1, 11; 6:1-4; 10:1; 12:1; 13:15)
 - 7) The faith-rest life and trials are designed to bring us to a greater _____ with JESUS CHRIST and a clearer _____. (Job 14:14; 19:25-27)
 - 8) The faith-rest life allows you to realize by faith that God has a _____ in your trials for GOOD. (Job 23:3-10; Romans 8:28)

9) The faith-rest life is sustained by regularly feeding your soul the _____.
(23:12)

10) The faith-rest life involves at times divine _____ which can be rejected in your ARROGANCE or responded to by HUMBLE ADMISSION to God. (Job 31: 38:1-3; 40:1-5, 42:1-6)

- God allows _____ to pass before He answers Job directly and not his friends.
- God speaks directly to Job and He _____ all that was previously spoken except acknowledging Job's desire to foolishly confront & contend with God.
- God asks Job ____ rhetorical questions that Job could not answer.
- God _____ Job and his pride, and Job eventually confesses to God, "Behold, I am _____," and he admits how little he knew of God & His ways. (40:1-5; Rom. 11:33-36)
- God further humbles Job and His pride as He had too _____ a perspective of God and too _____ a perspective of himself. (42:1-6)
- Job admitted his folly without argument, hesitation, self-defense, blaming no one except himself. "Therefore, I _____ in sackcloth & ashes." (42:6)

11) The faith-rest life allows you (like Job) to not merely respond _____ but also with grace and forgiveness toward your _____ if they have misjudged & acted inappropriately toward you.. (42:7-9)

12) The faith-rest life allows Job to be _____ with God and be _____ by God. (42:10-17)
