

Principle of the First

January 25th, 2017

Do your best to keep all of your answers to about 30-60 seconds.

Please be respectful in listening to others and in honoring their time.

- Proverbs 27:17 As iron sharpens iron, so friends keep each other sharp.
- Romans 12:10 Show family affection to one another with brotherly love. Outdo one another in showing honor.

1. Introduce yourself including your: name, your current job, and a “10-second tell” about how you got connected to River of Life.
2. Have you ever been intentional about living life from your core values? Can you schedule a time right now— yes, RIGHT NOW— to examine your values. Write this time in lines on the back of your note page. (Schedule this with your spouse if you have one and get a babysitter if you need to! Let's live life with intentional priorities!)
3. If you were gut level honest with yourself, what percentage of the time would you say God is coming first in your daily life?
 - Consider your family relations (marriage, parenting, interactions with grandkids, etc.), your work ethic, your neighborhood representation... the way you talk, think, act. What percentage of the time do you feel you are acting like Christ by doing life his way?
4. What is one discipline you can incorporate into your life this week to increase that percentage of putting God first in your life?
5. If you were gut level honest with yourself, what percentage of the time would you say God is coming first in your financial life? And what is one thing you can do to increase that percentage this month?
6. What is the biggest challenge in giving to God first, before anything else?
7. If you were gut level honest with yourself, how would you describe your faith life?
 - What is one thing you can do to increase your faith in God this week?
 - What demanded price (discipline) will you need to put in place for this to happen? (Maybe it is setting an earlier alarm, skipping lunch with everyone, asking for accountability, downloading the ROL App for a reading plan, etc.)

We would love to stay in contact and hear the stories of life change and value-based decisions you are making. Please feel free to email us! See you next week!
