I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Alleluia, Christ is Risen!

Stuttgart, arr. James Kirkby

Alleluia, alleluia! Hearts to heav'n and voices raise:
Sing to God a hymn of gladness, sing to God a hymn of praise.
He, who on the cross a victim, for the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ the King of glory, now is risen from the dead.
Christ is risen, we are risen! Shed upon us heav'nly grace,
Rain and dew and gleams of glory from the brightness of thy face.
Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia! To the Savior who has gained the victory.

God's Creative Limits - Saturday, May 23,
8am, Coffee and Muffins Provided

When we read Bible verses about god's boundaries that describe creation, we see a God who sets edges and order with intention. As a community, we learn that the world's limits — like shorelines, seasons, and the fixed paths of day and night — are signs of care. These boundaries help life flourish. They show that chaos is held in check and that God's wisdom shaped a world that can sustain us. As we read, we can feel comforted: God is not absent in the details; He set boundaries so life could be predictable, safe, and beautiful. When storms toss the seas, the boundaries remind us that even the wild has limits, and God's design keeps things in balance. We should take these verses into our hearts and remember that the boundaries God set in nature teach us about His protecting hand. They call us to trust His order, to respect the created world, and to follow the example of living within good limits that promote life and peace.

The men's last Bible study will be May 23rd and then resume on Saturday, September 12.
