Order & Appointment in the Church

Titus 1:1-9 (LSB)

- 1 Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's elect and the full knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness,
- 2 in the hope of eternal life, which the God who cannot lie promised from all eternity,
- 3 but at the proper time manifested His word in preaching, with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior,
- 4 To Titus, my genuine child according to our common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

- 5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you would set in order what remains and appoint elders in every city as I directed you,
- 6 namely, if any man is beyond reproach, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, who are not accused of dissipation, or rebellious.
- 7 For the overseer must be beyond reproach as God's steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not pugnacious, not fond of dishonest gain,
- 8 but hospitable, loving what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled,
- 9 holding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, so that he will be able both to exhort in sound doctrine and to reprove those who contradict..

The church is God's primary instrument in this world to bring the hope of eternal life through the truth of the gospel of Christ. The apostle Paul, who had committed his believing life to that end, is now giving that charge to others as he instructs faithful men to appoint elders in every city to shepherd the churches.
