“Go.”

April 23, 2023

“¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...’”

Matthew 28:16-20

- 1. Jesus’ first command after the resurrection is to make disciples. Greg encouraged us to consider the gifts we each uniquely possess as we consider our call to make disciples.
 1. Consider following two categories and then share with the group:
 - Where do you spend most of your time?
 - How has God uniquely gifted you to invest in those spaces?
 2. Within your sphere of influence, what is your next step of faith in making disciples?
- 2. Greg reminded us that the apostles waited for the arrival of the Holy Spirit before beginning their ministry. Do you feel dependence on the Holy Spirit in obeying the Great Commission? Share ways you presently depend on Him or desire to depend on Him.
- 3. Greg reminded us that some people doubted Jesus, even after Jesus appeared to them. Instead of disqualifying those who doubted, Jesus gave them a mission. Jesus does the same for each of us. He calls us into mission, despite our shortcomings. What are you tempted to believe disqualifies you from your new mission? (As you share, remember that the lies of the enemy lose power when we expose them.)

We often talk about taking your next step of faith with Jesus. As you reflect on this week's teaching, what is the next step of faith you'll commit to?
