

Racial Reconciliation the Importance of Unity

A simple coach training workshop sparked a powerful conversation on race relationships between African Americans and White Americans. Min. Kevin Watkins openly admitted that he had biases against his white coaching peer partner. This open admission was used to launch a movement of discussions and now a book that will be authored by Min. Kevin and Dr. Jeff on race relationships and the power of unity.

Late Sunday night we took the time to have one of the first conversations around the context of race relationships on a Paradigm 360 platform. We asked Dr. Harold Felder to join us as a guest on the show so we could have a biblical discussion around race.

Reflection:

Where do you stand as a Christian on the topic of race relationships?

If your son or daughter brought home someone of a different culture what would be your response? Is your response biblical?

How does sin play a role in the human problem of racism?

How can you be a light to the world and change the view of racism in America one conversation at a time?

How important is it for us to have a proper Biblical Worldview around race if we call ourselves Christians?

How can you love those different than you in a deeper way with the love of Christ?

How has this podcast changed your attitude toward being a responsible Christian and spreading the love of Christ to all mankind?