● Good Friday and Easter Sunday!

Today we begin Holy Week with Palm Sunday! Join us this Friday at 6:30PM as we continue with Good Friday, then join us again next Sunday for Easter! To accommodate space for guests, we will have three Worship Services for Easter Sunday at 8:00AM, 9:30AM, and 11:00AM! All services will be identical and all services will have childcare available for Babies - 6th Grade. Life Groups will be meeting at alternative times. Please speak with your Life Group leader to learn when your group will be meeting! We can't wait to see everyone next week for Easter!

● SOWING GENEROUSLY TOGETHER UPDATE

Dear Church,

These are exciting days at Nettleton Baptist Church! We continue to be amazed at all that God is doing, and we are praying for even more! I want to take just a moment to update you on Phase 1 of our Sowing Generously Together.

- THE BUILD: The Master's Plan group out of Oklahoma continues to work hard behind the scenes to finalize our design drawings and put together a construction timeline. Howard Ballard is serving our church well as the point person for this project. We are expecting to "break ground" and begin renovation in either May or early June. Additionally, our Leadership Team has secured a construction loan at a rate below prime! Lastly, we have formed a 3 member team to assist in making some design decisions. They will start their work in the next couple of weeks.
- THE FAIR: We are visiting with the NEA Fair Board to finalize a plan for the 2023 District Fair. Stay tuned for more updates on this matter.
- THE LAND: After visiting with our real estate agency and a very favorable appraisal, our trustees have agreed to raise the price of our 22 acres to $3.8 million. The highway department has broken ground on the by-pass project, and we are very close to reaching an agreement for the small piece of land that they intend to purchase from us (part of the 22 acres).
- PRESCHOOL: We will soon begin a small, in-house renovation project on an additional room to meet the growing needs of our Preschool Ministry. We're thankful for ways that we can continue to make space for our ever-growing Preschool area.

We thank you for your continued support and generosity. The church has received over $250,000 since launching the Sowing Generously Together campaign last fall. You can expect to be given regular updates in the Nettleton Post, as well as monthly updates in our Sunday services from our Leadership Team. Please join in praying for the sale of our 22 acres and for our Phase 1 renovation to go smoothly.
