

Praiseworthy:

What Creates an Authentic Worship Experience: Part 4

- I. The third cause of Christian worship is the security of the Holy Spirit (vv. 13-14).
 - A. The prerequisite for the security that the Holy Spirit provides is faith in Jesus Christ (v. 13a).
 - B. When we come to faith, the Holy Spirit secures God's claim on our life (v. 13b).
 - C. When we come to faith, the Holy Spirit assures the certainty of our eternity (v. 14a).
 - D. The Holy Spirit secures us so that we will savor God's goodness in our life (v. 14b).
- II. The safest place to put our faith is in the protective care of God's grace (Matt. 11:28).
- III. Application: Rest in the protective care of the Holy Spirit and celebrate!

“This week I was worried/stressed/ fearful about
_____,
but today I praise God
because when I trusted
Jesus, I found security and
assurance in my life,
knowing that the Holy Spirit
is caring for me. Do you have a story like that?”

“This week I was worried/stressed/ fearful about
_____,
but today I praise God
because when I trusted
Jesus, I found security and
assurance in my life,
knowing that the Holy Spirit
is caring for me. Do you have a story like that?”

Praiseworthy:

What Creates an Authentic Worship Experience: Part 4

- I. The third cause of Christian worship is the security of the Holy Spirit (vv. 13-14).
 - A. The prerequisite for the security that the Holy Spirit provides is faith in Jesus Christ (v. 13a).
 - B. When we come to faith, the Holy Spirit secures God’s claim on our life (v. 13b).
 - C. When we come to faith, the Holy Spirit assures the certainty of our eternity (v. 14a).
 - D. The Holy Spirit secures us so that we will savor God’s goodness in our life (v. 14b).
- II. The safest place to put our faith is in the protective care of God’s grace (Matt. 11:28).
- III. Application: Rest in the protective care of the Holy Spirit and celebrate!