

Acts: O Church, Arise!
August 23rd, 2026 — Acts 18:24-28
“Mighty in the Scriptures”
Sermon by Rex Metcalf

Big Idea: God uses teachable people who faithfully proclaim Christ & continually grow in their understanding of His truth.

1. God uses _____ with different _____ (vv. 24-25)
2. _____ people continue _____ (v. 26)
3. God _____ the ministry of _____ servants (v. 27)
4. The _____ of Scripture-Center _____ (v. 28)
5. Lesson for today's _____
 - 1)
 - 2)
 - 3)
 - 4)

Reflections
Acts 18:24-28

Observation Questions

What qualities of Apollos are highlighted in Acts 18:24-25?

What was Apollos teaching accurately, and what was he lacking in his understanding?

How did Priscilla and Aquila respond when they heard Apollos teaching?

What can we learn from the way they approached him?

According to verses 27-28, what impact did Apollos have after receiving further instructions?

Interpretation Questions

Why do you think Luke emphasizes both Apollos' strengths and his need for further teaching?

What does Apollos' willingness to receive instruction reveal about his character?

What does this passage teach us about the importance of discipleship within the church?

Next Week: Barry Vegter, Rocky Mountain District Superintendent