Conclusion: Here's the Question

Interpretation Questions

Why do you think Paul begins his sermon with Israel's history instead of starting directly with Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about God's faithfulness to keep His promises?

How is it possible for people to know Scripture and still miss Jesus?

Why is the resurrection so essential to the gospel message?

What does it mean to be "justified," and how is that different from simply being forgiven?

Application Questions

How do you personally respond when people let you down or walk away? What can you learn from Paul's example?

In what ways can people today be "close to truth" but still miss Jesus?

Do you ever find yourself trying to "earn" God's approval? What does this passage say about that?

What does it look like in daily life to live as someone who is fully forgiven and justified?

Is there any area where you might be ignoring or delaying your response to God?
