Jim & Elisabeth Elliot

Both Jim (Oct 8,1927-Jan 8,1956) & Elisabeth Elliot had a passion for reaching the lost. They had a desire to reach the Auca Indian tribe in Ecuador and set out with 4 other families to share the Gospel with them.

On January 8,1956 Jim Elliot , Nate Saint , Ed McCully , Peter Fleming , and Roger Youderian were attacked and killed by the Auca Indians.

Jim's wife Elisabeth carried on her husband's dream to share the gospel and she chose to live among the very tribe that took her husband's life.

The Moravians

Johann Leonhard Dober and David Nitschmann (1732) These two young Moravians from Herrnhut , Germany, were called to minister to the African slaves in the Danish West Indies .

When they were told that they would not be allowed to do such a thing, Dober and Nitschmann sold themselves to a slave owner and boarded a ship bound for the West Indies.
