Proverbs 14:11–19

[11] The house of the wicked will be destroyed, but the tent of the upright will flourish.

[12] There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.

[13] Even in laughter the heart may ache, and the end of joy may be grief.

[14] The backslider in heart will be filled with the fruit of his ways, and a good man will be filled with the fruit of his ways.

[15] The simple believes everything, but the prudent gives thought to his steps.

[16] One who is wise is cautious and turns away from evil, but a fool is reckless and careless.

[17] A man of quick temper acts foolishly, and a man of evil devices is hated.

[18] The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

[19] The evil bow down before the good, the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Romans 12:18

[18] If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Psalms 73:16–18

[16] But when I thought how to understand this, it seemed to me a wearisome task, [17] until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I discerned their end.

[18] Truly you set them in slippery places; you make them fall to ruin.

Psalms 1:1–5

[1] Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; [2] but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

[3] He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. [4] The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

[5] Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;

Ecclesiastes 2:1–2

[1] I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy yourself." But behold, this also was vanity. [2] I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of pleasure, "What use is it?"

Proverbs 1:31

[31] therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices.

Hosea 8:7

[7] For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no heads; it shall yield no flour; if it were to yield, strangers would devour it.

Proverbs 23:31–32

[31] Do not look at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly. [32] In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like an adder.

Ephesians 5:15

[15] Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise,

Proverbs 29:11

[11] A fool gives full vent to his spirit, but a wise man quietly holds it back.

Ecclesiastes 7:9

[9] Be not quick in your spirit to become angry, for anger lodges in the heart of fools.

Proverbs 4:7

[7] The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight.

Colossians 2:3

[3] in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Psalms 37:12–13

[12] The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him, [13] but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he sees that his day is coming.
