

January 18, 2026 at 11:11 AM

“Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth” Matthew 5:5

Meekness is not niceness. Nor does it mean a lack strength- Jesus was not saying, “blessed are you when you’re a push over.”

The world says the powerful will inherit the earth, but God says the meek will.

January 18, 2026 at 11:14 AM

Meekness is not weakness, it is when your will is yielded to God.

Meekness is something produced in you by the Spirit of God.

When your will is yielded to God there is a trust and obedience to Him no matter what. There is a deep assurance that whatever the outcome, God still sits on the throne.

*Whatever may come, I will trust Him; whatever God asks of me, that I will do.

January 18, 2026 at 11:18 AM

An independent and prideful road is not the pathway of the Kingdom.

When Eve took of the fruit, she was saying MY way...yet so much regret came from her and Adam's actions.

*When you are in the will of God, you will never have regret.

January 18, 2026 at 11:20 AM

“Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart; and you will find rest in your souls.” Matthew 28:19

Jesus was meek: the Bible says He was obedient even unto death.

Jesus had a moment in the Garden of Gethsemane when He asked the Father to let this cup pass but nevertheless, Jesus says, “Your will be done.”

Jesus is exemplifying for us yielding to the Father to carry out the very mission He was sent for.

January 18, 2026 at 11:22 AM

Regardless of what I feel or what I want to do, if God said it, then I am listening to it. That is meekness.

When your heart is yielded to God your true identity is formed.

To the meek God says: your identity is in Me, all that I have is yours.

“But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name.”

John 1:12

