

KINGDOM LEADERSHIP PODCAST

“Prayer Assignments”

Fred Hartley
September 1, 2026

“Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you, and I will instruct you in the good and the right way.” 1 Samuel 12:23

Every kingdom leader must get his prayer assignments straight.

A prayer assignment is a prayer request you receive from God.

When people ask you to pray, you should pray at least once.
When God asks you to pray, you should pray until it happens.

Prayer assignments are your highest priority.

You will not find an effective kingdom leader in the Bible who misunderstood his prayer assignments. There are none.

Abraham, Moses, David, Josiah, Jehoshaphat, Daniel and all the prophets, John the Baptist, the Apostle Paul, all the disciples, and certainly our Lord Jesus were kingdom leaders who consistently followed their prayer assignments.

Examples Of Prayer Assignments

- Specific people.
- People groups.
- Finances.
- Fasting.
- Specific prayer times, places, formats.
- Specific prayer groups.

Samuel validated his prayer assignment in 1 Samuel 12:23.

Validate Your Prayer Assignments

1. Decide today that your prayer assignments are your highest priority.
"Moreover..." (1 Samuel 12:23).
Moreover means above or on top of everything else.
2. Take hold of your God-given prayer assignment regardless of what it costs you, or what anyone else is doing.
"...as for me, far be it from me..." (1 Samuel 12:23).
3. Understand that God is holding you radically accountable for your prayer assignments.
"...far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord..." (1 Samuel 12:23).
4. Your prayer assignments will teach you to pray-through—to not cease praying, to pray until you receive the breakthrough.
"...that I should sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you..." (1 Samuel 12:23).
5. Learning to faithfully take hold of every prayer assignment is the key to the scope of your kingdom impact, and the success of your ministry.
"Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you, and I will instruct you in the good and the right way" (1 Samuel 12:23).

ACTIVATION

Now it's your turn to give priority to your prayer assignments.

Today I choose my prayer assignments as my highest priority.

I take hold of my God-given prayer assignment regardless of what it costs me, or what anyone else is doing.

I understand that God is holding me radically accountable to my prayer assignments.

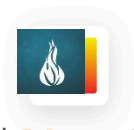

I will learn to pray-through; I will not cease praying until I receive the breakthrough.

I will faithfully take hold of every prayer assignment, understanding that this is the key to the scope of my kingdom impact, and the success of my ministry.
