

Sermon Notes

Trust God with your Love Story

Ground Rules for the Sermon Series:

- Listen for Yourself
- Conviction is good, Condemnation is bad
- Resist Apathy

Song of Solomon 1:1–2:7 – The Proper Order of Faithful Attraction

- Spiritual Attraction – Love, Honor, and Serve God.
- Emotional Attraction – Friendship, Respect and Affirmation
- Physical Attraction - Recognizing True Beauty

How can you Trust God with your Love Story?

Discussion Questions

- 1) Describe a spiritually attractive person. How spiritually attractive do you consider yourself? What can you do to grow in this area?
- 2) Describe an emotionally attractive person. How emotionally attractive do you consider yourself? What can you do to grow in this area?
- 3) If single: Write down the character qualities that you are looking for in a spouse. Pray that you would become the type of person who can match those qualities.
- 4) If married: Begin to affirm your spouse toward who God is calling them to be. Pray with them in regards to who you both want to become to best serve one another. What needs to change in order for you to become your spouse's 'number one fan?'
- 5) Share your journey in regards to trusting God with your love story. What has He taught you along the way? Do you currently trust His script? Explain.