YEAR TWO

THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

Luke 9:43b-50

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Week 49

1. What do you think it means when verse 45 says that they didn't understand what Jesus was saying because it was "hidden from them?"
2. Why do you think the disciples were afraid to ask Jesus what he meant in verse 45?
3. How concerned can you become about receiving recognition when you serve for The Kingdom?
4. What is one area where you could intentionally take the position of a servant this week?

Heart- Level Reflection Questions

1. The disciples argued about who is better. How does your pride get in the way of being the disciple Jesus has called you to be?
2. Jesus says, "For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest." What does it look like to have that stature in our lives?
3. What was Jesus trying to communicate when he said "whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me?"
4. The disciples were quick to condemn someone who was doing ministry work because he wasn't "one of them." How do we allow our differences with others to create division within the church, and how should we approach differences and disagreements with fellow believers?
