

Psalms for the Seasons
The God for All Seasons - Psalm 146

Intro: In every season of life, the primary issue for us is not whether we have all of the answers that we want, but whether we have the level of trust in God that we need.

I. The _____ Mindset of the Psalmist – Psalm 146:1-5

A. _____ – 146:1, 10

B. _____ – 146:2

C. _____ – 146:3-5

II. The _____ Magnification by the Psalmist – Psalm 146:6-10

A. What the LORD _____ – 146:6

B. What the LORD _____ – 146:6-10

1. _____ Truth – 146:6

2. _____ Justice – 146:7, 9

3. _____ Hope – 146:7-8

4. _____ the Righteous – 146:8

5. _____ for the Needy – 146:9

These statements of what God does is proven through what Jesus did when He came to earth in fulfillment of the promise given in Isaiah 61:1-2 (Cf. Luke 4:18-19).

C. What the LORD Will _____ – 146:10

Such knowledge should bring us to the place of seeing that our seasons are not pointless, that God is in control.

Conclusion: Let your seasons draw you to the God of all seasons. Behold Him, worship Him, Trust Him for who He is.
