

“G” is for Church
Guarantees – Romans 5:1-5

Intro: If you could have one guarantee right now related to the days in which we are living, what would it be? There are guarantees that we that are Christians have been given.

I. _____ – 5:1

_____ = God declared us as righteous.

A. For the “_____.” – 5:1

B. For the _____ . – 5:9

C. For _____ guarantees.

II. _____ – 5:1

We, who once could not face _____ because of our _____, can now through Christ come face to face with God.

III. _____ – 5:2 (Also Hebrews 4:16)

_____ = We have been ushered into God’s Presence.

This privilege is through grace that is guaranteed through Christ, and being justified and at peace with God, we can enter his presence... Then and Now!

IV. _____ – 5:3-4

_____ = Latin word, “tribulum.” As the tribulum is to grain, so tribulation is to our lives.

A. _____ –

B. _____ –

C. _____ –

V. _____ – 5:5

A. _____ of God

B. _____ of God

Conclusion: If the presence of a teacher in a boy’s life gave him the hope of recovery, how much more can the presence of God’s guarantees in our lives give us a much greater hope—a hope that does not disappoint?

We have guarantees that we can rest our lives and our hope upon, and have a reason to persevere regardless of what things look like.
