

By Faith, Moses!
By Faith, Moses Grew
Acts 7:30-36

Intro: Are you a leader, follower, or both? However you answer, the same lessons are important to learn in order to grow in faith.

I. Short-Sighted Decisions have Pitfalls – Exodus 2:11-14

II. Sovereign Delays are Purposeful – Exodus 2:15, 23

III. Self-Doubt is _____

A. _____ - Exodus 3:11 – “Who am I?”

B. _____ - Exodus 3:13 – “What shall I say to them?”

C. _____ - Exodus 4:1 – “Suppose...”

D. _____ - Exodus 4:10 – “I am not...”

Self-doubt does not have to prevent us from moving forward in faith and obedience to God (See 3:10, 12, 14, 16, 17, 20)

Self-doubt is preventable through _____ to and _____ what God’s Word says in answer to self-doubt (See Romans 7:24; 1 Corinthians 15:9-10; 2 Corinthians 12:9; Philippians 4:13)

IV. Steadfast Devotion is _____ – Hebrews 11:27, 12:2

Illustrate: Mowing straight requires a focal point.

Moses was a great leader because:

A. He fixed his focus by _____ on the invisible God and His promises.

B. He learned to be a _____.

Conclusion: Whatever you are hoping to accomplish in life, make your first choice to look to and remain focused on Jesus; the One greater than Moses who has made us greater promises, and whose presence in our lives gives us the ability to be what He calls us to be—a faithful follower.
