

Jesus, Still
Luke 1:67-79

Intro: Jesus is still God's greatest gift to mankind, and our greatest reason for hope and peace.

I. Jesus is Still _____ – Luke 1:68 (Also Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23)

Jesus is still “_____” possessing every attribute of God.

Jesus is still perfectly _____ and full of sympathy.

We can live with hope-filled confidence and be still and know that He is God with us.

II. Jesus is Still _____ – Luke 1:68

Jesus is still the perfect Redeemer. His payment was so complete and perfect that it is still sufficient to deliver or rescue sinful people from the consequences of their sin.

III. Jesus is Still _____ – Luke 1:69

A. _____ Savior – 1:69

B. _____ Savior – 1:70, 72-73

C. _____ Savior – 1:71

IV. Jesus is Still _____ – Luke 1:74-75

Illustrate: Awful Gardner's Deliverance

Deliverance on any level and from any issue is still available through the powerful work of Christ.

V. Jesus is Still _____ – Luke 1:78-79

Dayspring = Jesus is the promised One from God who is the Light of the world and will give light to mankind who is sitting in darkness.

A. _____ Light

B. _____ into the Way of Peace

Application: Jesus is still greater than anything we could ever hope for; and He is abundantly more than anything we will ever need. Do you believe that Jesus is still God's greatest gift to mankind, and our greatest reason for hope and peace?