

By Faith, Moses!
A Household of Faith – Exodus 2:1-10

Intro: Was it easier to build a household of faith then or now? Either way, like Moses' parents, it is essential that by faith, we build a household of faith.

I. A Household of Faith is _____ – Exodus 2:1

Illustrate: Harford Fair – Ribbons show distinction between good, better, and best. How do “households of faith” show distinction?

A. Genesis 17:1 - “_____ before me and be blameless.”

B. Romans 12:2 – “Be not _____ but be _____.”

C. Colossians 3:1-2 – “_____. Set your _____ on things above.”

These intentional actions build a distinct household of faith in any generation and culture regardless of what the days are like.

II. A Household of Faith is _____ – Exodus 2:2-10

A. _____ Faith – Exodus 2:2; Hebrews 11:23

- Be for what God is for and against what God is against.
- Obey God over men and laws that are opposed to God.

B. _____ Family – 2:2-8

By faith, Amram and Jochebed did everything they could possibly do to protect Moses from infanticide

C. _____ Guidance – 2:9-10

By faith, Moses was taught the _____ so that he would be grounded in the _____ . (Hebrews 11:24-27)

Your time to provide biblical guidance is limited.

Do not underestimate the value and necessity of Bible instruction at home, Sunday School and church, Children and Youth ministries to provide guidance for your kids.

Conclusion: The date on the calendar is different. The geography is different. The culture is different. The issues may or may not be different, but the need is the same.

Your time to build is limited, but the impact for building a household of faith is limitless. By faith, build a household of faith.
