Study Guide

God's Goodness Expressed through Mercy (Micah 7:18-19) – God delights in showing mercy and removes our sins completely.

Something to think about: How does remembering God's mercy toward you affect the way you extend mercy to others?

God's Goodness Expressed through Grace (Ephesians 2:5-9) – Salvation is a gift, given by grace and received through faith.

Something to think about: Why do we sometimes still try to “earn” God's favor instead of resting in His grace?

The Holy Spirit Given by Grace (Luke 11:9-13, 1 Corinthians 12) – God delights in giving good gifts, including the Holy Spirit.

Something to think about: How have you seen God's grace at work in the spiritual gifts He has placed in your life?

God's Goodness Expressed through His Faithfulness (Deuteronomy 7:6-9) – God is unchanging, committed, and keeps His promises across generations.

Something to think about: In what ways has God proven faithful to you, even when you've been faithless?
