Getting to Know You:

1. Imagine Jesus came today. Is there anything in your behavior you would be ashamed of? What is an area in your life where you think you have been particularly obedient?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Matthew 24:1-14, Mark 13:1-2 and Luke 21:20-24. What events does Jesus mention that will precede the tribulation? Why did Jesus use the analogy of birth pains when He talked about signs? What are some of the signs we see today that can be considered birth pains? Consider Jesus' accurate prophecy concerning the Jewish temple and Jerusalem. How does this give us confidence in future unfulfilled prophecies?

2. Read Matthew 24:15-31, 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12 and Revelation 13:1-8. What should we expect to see during the tribulation? Who is the Antichrist and what characterizes him? Why will deception be so great during this time?

3. Read Matthew 24:32-51, Zachariah 12:10, Romans 11:25-27, Acts 1:6-8 and Revelation 19:11-21. Contrast the response of Israel with the Gentile armies when they see the Lord at His second coming. Why does Jesus not tell us the time of His coming? How should we live as we await the Lord's return?

Taking it Home:

1. How has the escalation of world events caused you to react? Do you find yourself reacting with expectation and hope or in fear and anxiety? If anyone in your group is struggling with fear, take a minute to pray over them. If you are personally struggling with fear in light of the tension in the Middle East, take a moment to repent and redirect your heart to God.
