Getting to Know You:

1. Using only adjectives and personality traits, describe a famous person or superhero and allow the others in the group one minute to try to guess who it is.
2. Describe one of God's characteristics or attributes you have discovered through personal experience. How was your faith impacted by encountering this aspect of God's nature?

Digging Deeper:

1. How has God revealed His character to humanity according to Romans 1:17-20? List some of the attributes of God you discover as you read Colossians 1:17, Psalm 147:5, Ephesians 3:20-21, and Revelation 4:8.
2. List the attributes of God you find in Exodus 34:4-8, Exodus 20:5-6 and Psalm 90:1-2. How would you clarify, to a friend, the apparent contradiction of a loving God who forgives sinners and a just God who punishes the wicked? How would you explain that God is both incomprehensible and yet intimately knowable?
3. Read Numbers 23:19, Hebrews 13:8, and James 1:17, noting God's unchanging nature. Why is God's immutability of significant value to your faith? Consider Lamentations 3:22-23 in your answer.

Taking it Home:

1. Does your affection towards others tend to resemble God's love or the world's definition more? (See Luke 6:32-36 and Romans 5:7-8) How will you allow God's loving example to transform how you interact with people this week?
2. Have you ever felt that God would love you less or treat you differently based on your success or failures? Have you ever felt discouraged while waiting for God's answer to your prayers? What have you learned about God's character this week that encourages you, and how will you turn that insight into action?
