Study Guide

God's Blueprint Over Cultural Trends

Jesus taught that marriage is a lifelong covenant, not to be discarded when it's inconvenient.

Something to think about: How does your view of marriage reflect God's unchanging design rather than shifting cultural attitudes?

Sexually Driven Culture – Recognizing Counterfeits

From media to advertising, sexual desire is portrayed as life's ultimate goal.

Something to think about: Where have you noticed culture shaping your expectations of intimacy?

God's Calling for Intimacy – One Man, One Woman, One Lifetime

God established marriage as the context for true intimacy and blessing.

Something to think about: How does seeing marriage as God's calling affect your perspective about intimacy?

Counterfeits of Intimacy – Distortions That Destroy

Lust, pornography, and hookup culture promise fulfillment but leave emptiness.

Something to think about: What counterfeit versions of intimacy are you tempted to believe?

Attitude Toward Intimacy – Esteem and Service

Intimacy mirrors Christ's love for the church and should be honored, not diminished.

Something to think about: How can you better serve your loved ones emotionally, spiritually, and physically?

Foundations for Intimacy – Blessing and Duty

Intimacy is a mutual gift and responsibility in marriage.

Something to think about: How can you see physical intimacy as both a joy and a sacred commitment?

Walking in Intimacy – Growing Closer to God and Each Other

The "Triangle Marriage" shows that the closer each spouse gets to God, the closer they are to each other.

Something to think about: What steps can you take this week to draw nearer to God together as a couple?
