Prayer Points

Build Compassion for the Lost – Ask God to stir your heart with compassion for those who are doubting or wandering without truth.

Be a Prepared Defender – Pray for diligence in studying Scripture and apologetics so you can confidently share your faith.

Tear Down Strongholds – Ask God for wisdom to dismantle false beliefs and cultural lies with gentleness and respect.

Strengthen Personal Faith – Pray that your own doubts would be met with God’s truth, leading to a deeper and unshakable faith.

Equip the Next Generation – Ask God to use you in training your children, youth, and others to boldly defend and share the gospel.

Life Group Questions

Getting To Know You:

1. When people talk about apologetics, what is your initial reaction and why?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read 2 Corinthians 10:3-5, Colossians 4:5-6, 1 Peter 3:15, and Jude 1:21-22. Why is it essential for a believer to study apologetics? What is so significant in having a faith that is backed by evidence? What are the implications if we don't know how to defend our faith?
2. Read Psalms 22:1-18, Isaiah 52:13-53:12, Acts 4:13, and 1 Corinthians 2:1-5. What are some different "pillars" or "lines of evidence" we can use in defending our faith? How would you personally defend your faith?
3. Read Matthew 7:7-8, Matthew 22:1-14, John 6:44, Acts 16:14-15, 2 Corinthians 4:4 and Hebrews 3:7-8. Why is reasoning with people not enough? What happens spiritually in the process of an unbeliever coming to Christ? Based on your study, how can we effectively bring the lost to Christ?

Take it Home:

1. Take a moment to break up into groups of two or three and discuss how you would witness with someone who didn't believe in Jesus. What evidence is the most convincing to you? How would you use it in your discussion?
