Getting to Know You:

1. What evidence have you seen that America has drifted away from traditional values and Biblical foundations? What would it take for Christians to revive those Biblical values?
2. Describe your Bible study and devotional routines. What features most excite you about God's word? What are some things that can interfere with or obstruct your study habit?
3. Why is the inerrancy of God's word essential for building your foundation on it? What other significant aspects of God's word help develop one's faith and a Christian worldview?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Psalm 19:7-11 and Psalm 119:103-105, 92, 165, listing and restating the psalm-writers' description of God's Word. Contrast his view with the complaints and excuses voiced by people who avoid spending time reading the Bible. What would you say to inspire someone who lacks a desire for His word?
2. Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9, Psalm 1:1-2 and Psalms 119:9-16. How does one live a Godly life according to His word? What might change if you implement these passages today?
3. Many Christians feel depressed, anxious, or discouraged. How do the promises in Philippians 4:19, Hebrews 13:5, 2 Corinthians 12:9, and Romans 8:28 address these issues? What encouragement can you find and share with someone experiencing those feelings from Isaiah 26:3 and Philippians 4:6-9?

Taking it Home:

1. This sermon series coincides with the launching of a new curriculum where all ages study the same topic, allowing you to hold family devotions built on those lessons. What is one specific change you will make this week to reinforce your family's foundation on God's Word?
2. What adjustments can you make in your daily routine to free up additional Bible reading time? Are there any other changes you will try this week to whet your appetite for God's word?
