Getting to Know You:

1. What is your primary source of news? How much news do you watch/ read in a day? At what time of the day are you checking the news?
2. What is your primary source of your devotional life? What tools, in addition to the Bible, do you use? At what time of the day do you typically have your devotion time?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Isaiah 46:8-10, Jeremiah 29:11, Isaiah 55:11, Philippians 1:6, Romans 11:1-5 and Romans 11:25-27. What confidence can we have that what God has planned, He will accomplish? What is His plan for us as believers? What is God's plan for the nation of Israel?
2. Read Ezekiel 38:1-16 and Psalm 121:4-7, Psalm 2:1-3. Who are the nations that will be coming up against Israel? According to Ezekiel, what is their motivation for doing so? According to recent events, what other factors may play a part in their desire to attack Israel? Ultimately, what is the root reason why nations will come against Israel? Why can we be confident that Israel will be protected?
3. Read Romans 5:1, John 16:33, John 14:27, Matthew 5:10-12 and John 15:18-25. How can one find true peace? Should a believer expect to find peace in/with the world? If not, why not? What does it mean if we are persecuted for being righteous? How can we find hope in being persecuted for Christ?

Taking it Home:

1. How has the escalation of world events caused you to react? Do you find yourself reacting with expectation and hope or in fear and anxiety? If anyone in your group struggles with fear, take a minute to pray over one another. If you are personally struggling with fear in light of the tension in the Middle East, take a moment to repent and redirect your heart to God.
