Getting to Know You:

1. Why do you think Jesus chose to be baptized even though He was without sin? In what ways are the timing and mode of His Baptism relevant to the example He sets for a believer?
2. Briefly relate the story of your Baptism. How did you know that the timing was right? How did you feel on that day as you went into the water? How did you react when you came up out of the water? If you still need to be baptized, explain what has prevented you from making this public profession of faith and what would convince you that you are ready.

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Matthew 3:11-12, Romans 6:3-4, Colossians 2:11-14 and Romans 2:28-29 then discuss the symbolism and meaning of Baptism. What is the Spiritual significance of circumcision today?
2. Read Matthew 3:16-17 noting the presence of the Father and Holy Spirit at Jesus' Baptism. Look also at Matthew 4:1, John 5:19, and Acts 10:38; what role did the Father and the Holy Spirit play in the ministry of Jesus? Read Matthew 6:9, Ephesians 5:22-23, Romans 8:34, Ephesians 1:13, and John 16:7 as you discuss the function each person of the Trinity has in the life of a believer.
3. As you read the example set by the early church in Acts 2:37-38, Acts 8:35-38, and Acts 9:17-18, consider the relative timing between a believer's statement of faith and his Baptism. What does this imply about infant baptism? What does it indicate about a long-time follower still reluctant to be baptized?

Taking it Home:

1. Take a few minutes to recognize and express gratitude to each person of the Trinity for His specific role in your life.
2. Have you undervalued the significance of Baptism? Spend a moment meditating on Jesus' sacrifice and what it means to identify with Him in His death, burial, and resurrection.
